The Case of John M. Downing.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

In the report of the case of Downing in Naturday's Highlight is stated that I was applied to as counsel, and acvised John M. Downing to draw the money from the Eank of the State of New York, upon a draft in favor of John W. Lowning This is incorrect I did not know all the circumstances connected with the receipt of the draft until after I had identified him at the bank. Besides, during the three months that I had known the New York Downing, I always supposed his name to be John W., and so did every one connected with my office, nor ware any of us aware that M. was the middle letter till after his arrest. Yours, &c.

Menday, April 23, 1866.

L. E. BULKELEY. The Case of John M. Downing.

A Hat among Hats.—The Materials which constitutes hat are within the reach of every hatter, not so the tasks which moulds them into shape, and converts the crude elements into an exquisite specimen of a hat; for it may rest easy upon the bead and still the features will not be agreeably and properly displayed. The true artist understands this, and hence the secret in ESPENCHERIS great success. Go and judge for yourselves at 118 Nassau street.

The Cuirass of Pompey was said to be so brilliant as to dazile the eyes. a NOX'S hats are not painfully brilliant; but wear the rich glossy hae that stamps them as the ne plus ultra of an article of dress. This spring and summer style is really superb. Call and see them at 125 Falton street, and 533 Broadway.

Genin's Spring Hat is just now having "a run" unparalleled in the histor, of the New York hat trade. As fast as the cases and shelves are filled, they are as expt off pfashionable crowds. Look hat the store, and see the crowds with which it is constantly througed; such a scene was never before witnessed in any place of business in this city. GENIN, No. 214 Broadway, opposite St. Paul's Charch.

duriture sales.—The undersigned begs leave to inform his numerous friends and the public, that he is fully prepared as unstant, to give his attention to sales of household furniture at anothon, at the residences of families that intend broaking up housekeeping this spring. Account sales rendered invariably at the tollowing day after the sale, and advances made whon required.

Yankee Notions for May.—This popular periodical, the most successful comic and satirical paper ever published in the United States, fairly "looms" with fun his month. Its illustrations, eighty in number, are a credit is the country, while its reading matter challenges comparison with Punch, Diogenes or any of the Travestiantic Satirists, Price 12½ cents. 1,000 Fine, Fashionable Cloth Frock Coats, bought no matter how or where, for sale at EVANS' clothing warehouse, 56 and 68 Fulton street, at 88. A large lot of French shirts at less than half price.

Citizens from all Sections of the Union gather in New York. They purchase most of the articles they need here and there, and everywhere. But upon up pint they seem agreed, viz.: that the only place where shirts made to measure always fit, and are always delivered punctually, is GREEN'S, No. 1 Astor House.

Three things are Certain—Death, Rent Day and perfect his at GREEN'S shirt making establishment, No. I Aster House. Death and the landlord never fail to all for their dues, and GREEN'S shirts never fail to the because his system of measurement is based on mathematical certainties.

Kind Waves who Make their Husband's shirts are often doomed to unmerited disappointment. Not being guided by a mathematical system in cutting, their fits are lev, and only accidental. On the contrary, a missit, even by accident, is impossible at GREEN'S, No. 1 Actor House, his system of measurement being founded on infal-lible mathematical principles.

Mayor Wood is celebrated for his prompt-ness in business; so are MODDY & WIGGANS, 384 Broadway, for the fit and heauty of their shirts, made to order, at so-nemical prices. Give them a call.
